

First – 29 days in Banago, Balabagan, Lanao Del Sur, Mindanao

Photos shared are activities involving a Rice Seeds Multiplication Program for free dissemination to farmers and Vegetables Cropping Systems implemented through the school/students and with farmer's participation.

Agronomist “Frank Gorrez” with Muslim parents (l) and layout of the Rice Garden – Gulayan sa Paaralan (r)

Students seeding rice (l) and eight days old rice seedlings (r)

This is a “rainfed” rice (palay) garden with seeds provided by the Philippines Rice Research Institute’s Director – Dr. “Chito” Protacio in Munoz, Nueva Ecija, Luzon

Muslim farmer with his cow who plowed the garden with Frank Gorrez (I) and students planting vegetable seeds along the fence

Left (background) and right photos are 16 days old rice plants after seeding

Shalom President Ms. Eufemia T. Munn (c) and VP Arnel Hofer (r)
with Muslim friend

20 days and 22 days old rainfed rice plants (no watering at all)

FrankG with visitors (l) and Femme Munn with Rice Garden Agriculturist Aida Lindio (r)

25 days old Corn and Rice Plants with Shalom Institute on the background

Rice (l) and Corn Crop (r)

Left – Okra and Corn along back-fence line and at right – Okra next to rice

July 1 to July 30, 2016

- Ramadan ended June 30. The “TRAINING AND TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER SYSTEMS” school – based program implemented through Shalom Science Institute in Banago, Balabagan, Lanao Del Sur, Mindanao hands-on Rice Seeds Multiplication and Gulayan sa Paaralan with farmers participation started July 1.
- Sharing with you what was accomplished ending July 30, 2016.